

Fort Douglas Military Museum

Through exhibits, educational programming and publications, the Museum seeks to engage and inform the public. Our mission is to ...

- PRESERVE and interpret Utah's rich military heritage
- EDUCATE visitors about the role of the military in the development and growth of Utah, and
- HONOR all Utahns who have served their country in uniform.

Who We Serve

- Active military and veterans from all service branches
- Students and educators
- Visitors from throughout Utah and all 50 states
- International visitors
- Special interest groups

What Sets Us Apart

- Commitment to telling and sharing stories across the many facets of Utah's military history
- Unique sense of place within historic district and National Historic Landmark
- Centrally located to interpret what the military means to Utah

How We Work

- Static and temporary exhibits
- Research resources
- Activities
 - Fort Douglas Day
 - Cemetery Tour
 - Films and lectures
 - Paranormal investigations
 - Volunteer opportunities

World War I Poster Exhibition

World War I Poster Exhibition
Impressions of the Great War

on the 4th Floor Gallery through December 27, 2018

see additional World War I exhibits and artifacts at Fort Douglas Military Museum
32 Potter Street, Salt Lake City

In partnership with the Utah WWI Commission

VALOR

Our Future

- Storytelling and Interpretation
 - Sharing a more expansive and inclusive history of Utah's role on both homefront and battlefield
- Stabilization and Expansion
 - Strengthen facilities, reconciliation of collections and broaden staffing
- Awareness and Adaptability
 - Designation as Utah's official military museum